

St Michael's College Men's Residence Network Use Agreement

1. The University of St Michael's College (the 'College') provides limited network services, including access to the Internet through the University of Toronto network, to authorized users, in support of its academic mission. All persons using this service are bound by the "University of Toronto Policy on the Appropriate Use of Information Technology", which is available on-line at <http://www.utoronto.ca/~ic/utordist/general/appuse.html>.
2. In addition to those activities listed in the "University of Toronto Policy on the Appropriate use of Information Technology", the inappropriate use of the College's computing and network resources shall also include, but is not limited to:
  - (i) the illegal distribution of copyrighted materials;
  - (ii) the distribution or publication of offensive or objectionable materials;
  - (iii) unauthorized access, or attempted unauthorized access to other systems, computers, networks, communications, data or resources whether within the College, or outside it;
  - (iv) excessive use of network resources or providing access to network resources to unauthorized users;
  - (iv) promoting, conducting, or maintaining commercial activities;
  - (v) the transmission of unsolicited email;
  - (vi) harassing, intimidating, threatening or otherwise disrupting individuals or groups;
  - (vii) impersonation, criminal, or other illegal activity.
3. The College reserves the right to limit the manner in which students may access the College network, as well as the kinds of resources or services which they may access or provide to others through the network. In particular:
  - (i) you may not manually assign an IP address to your computer without consent from the College's Administrators;
  - (ii) you may not run cables of any kind beyond your room;
  - (iii) you may not use or share a network access point, port or jack not located in your assigned room;
  - (iv) you may not run a server, including, but not limited to, a DNS/BOOTP server, SMTP server, or Remote Access Server, without prior consent from the College's Administrators;
  - (v) you may not tamper, modify or otherwise alter the network hardware, including the data jack, wiring, conduits, fasteners, network switches etc.
4. You agree that you are responsible for all use of the network made through your assigned connection.
5. You acknowledge that there are certain risks associated with connecting a computer to the St Michael's College network, which may include loss of data, loss of service, damage to hardware or software, violation of privacy, or other personal loss or injury. You acknowledge that you are responsible for protecting your equipment and data, and that the College is not responsible if you suffer any damages or losses, howsoever caused.
6. You acknowledge that the College or the University, in their sole discretion, may limit your usage of and or access to the network. You further acknowledge that the College or the University has the right to monitor your communications through the network services, to best manage its resources, and to establish compliance with this agreement.
7. You acknowledge that breach of clause 2, or any other inappropriate use of the College's computing or network resources may result in the suspension of your access to the network, suspension from the Men's Residence, and disciplinary action under the College's Code of Conduct, and you will be liable for any damages that the College may suffer as a result thereof.

8. You acknowledge that the College cannot guarantee that your specific system will be able to access the network. Acquiring the hardware and software necessary to access the network, and configuring it to work with the network, is wholly your responsibility.

I have read the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement and agree to each and all of them.
